[11] In July 2003, British musicals ran into similar surfaces is between the schemes of the letter and rhyme of "yesterday" and "responded me, my love" by Nat King Cole and Frankie Laine; Originally a German song by Gerhard Winkler and Fred Rauch called Mã<sup>1</sup>/4tterlein, it was a little number 1 for Laine on the lists of the United Kingdom in 1953 as "responded to me, seper", which led to the speculation that McCartney had been influenced by song. The Telã © Grafo. "The fragmentation of the rock" (PDF). He believed that love was here to stay. Richard Lester, the director, finally bothered a lot for this and lost the stirrups, telling McCartney to finish writing the song or that the piano took off. [9] The patience of other Beatles was also tested by McCartney's work in progress; George Harrison summarized this when he said: "Blimey, he is always talking about that song. This did not prevent Matt Monro recorded the first of many of "yesterday" (in (in (in (in 2007. Ortiz, Marcos (2005). A7 chord is an example of a secondary dominant, specifically a V/VI chord.
